"There Isn't One
Really Good
Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."
Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment
—it's worse than a blank. A businessman's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business
on the strength of it are good.
We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses.
No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

ASSESSMENT REDUCED

Final Action Taken by the State Board of Equalization

The State Board of Equalization a few weeks ago raised the assessment of farm land in Mason 8% and town lots 4% above the report of the local Assessors.

Tuesday Deputy County Clerk A. F. Wood,
Squire John Cochran and Assessor William H.
Hawes went to Frankfort to appear before the State Board and have the assessment reduced.

In the final action the august body took 3%
from farm land, making the increase only 5%.

Assessor Hawes succeeded in having the 4%
raise on town lots wiped out entirely.

The reduction on farm land means a saving of $1,120 to the farmers of the county.

TEACHERS IN SESSION

Convention Closes a Day Early For Lack of Business

Maysville Men Honored With Office—Come Again, Ladies and Gentlemen

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Session opened by singing "Come Thou, Almighty King."
Invocation by Prof. Leer.
It was moved by Professor Shipp and seconded by Prof. Crabbe, that the Secretary send to Superintendent W. W. White a telegram of condolence on account of his sickness, which prevented his being present.

Prof. Metcalfe of Georgetown read a paper on "English in the High School," followed by discussions by B. F. Gabby and Prof. McClintock of Chicago University.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Supt. M. O. Winfrey read a paper on "Educational Problems."
After addresses by J. W. Carr, Superintendent of Schools, Anderson, Ind., on "Legions and Moral Training in Education," and Rev. H. T. Musselman on "Industrial Education," the following officers were elected—President—M. O. Winfrey, Middlesboro.
First Vice-President—C. C. Adams, Superintendent Grant county.
Second Vice-President—C. D. Wells, Superintendent, Mason county.
Third Vice-President—B. F. Gabby, Principal, Carrollton.
Secretary—W. H. McConnell, Paducah.
Treasurer—W. T. Berry, Maysville.
High School Section—President, J. N. Ster-

rett, Augusta; Secretary, Miss Frances Hendrick.
Superintendent Section—President, J. E. Snider; Secretary, Miss Frances Hendrick.
Music Section—President, J. G. Crabbe, Ashland; Secretary, Miss Frances Hendrick.
Child Study Section—President, Miss Nell Williams.
The Banner for attendance was awarded to Boyd county.
The Association was then turned over to President-elect M. O. Winfrey, who, after accepting the Presidency, then adjourned the Association.

In the evening a lawn fete was held on the beautiful grounds of Mr. Robert A. Cochran in the West End, where the Maysville Orchestra discoursed sweet music and where the visitors were delightfully entertained, choice refreshments being served.

In noticing the reception at the Hill House Tuesday evening, there was an unintentional oversight of the real "feature" of the occasion. That was the dramatic reading of Mr. James Wood of Cincinnati. Mr. Wood is a Lewis county boy, whom every Kentuckian can be proud of. He and Mrs. Wood are spending the summer here with his aunt, Mrs. S. M. Cartmell of West Front street.

And now, having been honored with the presence of a "sample lot" of members of the Kentucky Educational Association, THE LEDGER hopes the main body will at no distant day make up its mind to hold a session in old Maysville. Come, ladies and gentlemen; we'll be glad to see you!
The late Mr. James Wood was born at the old tanyard property at Washington.

NOVEL COURT CASE

'Squire Dresel Enjoys a Lively Affair Last Afternoon

Yesterday afternoon an interesting case that attracted a large number was up in 'Squire Dresel's Court. Mrs. Clara Morgan swore out warrants against Frank Yancey, Leigh Rogers and Robert Outten for disturbing religious worship at Plumville, all being of that neighborhood.

There was quite an array of witnesses, both male and female, for and against the young men. The Commonwealth was represented by County Attorney Frank P. O'Donnell and the defense was ably looked after by Lawyer Virgil McKnight.

Mrs. Morgan is a sanctificationist, and that means a religious fanatic. The testimony was emphatic and to the point on both sides.
Mrs. Morgan was put upon the witness stand and she almost worked herself into a frenzy. She wanted to stand up and deliver her testimony in a manner after preaching a sermon. The Court would not permit that, then she burst into tears and in a vociferous manner praised the Lord for being saved.

After speeches by both Attorneys, the case was given over to the Jury and after wrestling with the matter for about half an hour they handed in their verdict in which they agreed to disagree—four being for conviction and two for acquittal.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR.

Hundreds of Maysville Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home indorsement, the public expression of Maysville people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Maysville reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors cheerfully given by them will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

Mr. C. L. Hubbard, dairyman, of 325 West Third street, says:

"I have the greatest faith in Doan's Kidney Pills. The use of less than one box ended a disturbed condition of the kidneys and an inflammation of the bladder. After sometime it returned but in a lesser degree, and I procured another box of Doan's Kidney Pills at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore. Use of it substantiated the opinions I had already formed of this effective preparation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

St. Louis Letter.

Correspondence Public Ledger.

St. Louis, June 20th, 1904.

Dear Tom: For fear the Maysville representatives for Kentucky at the Fair be too modest to speak of their parts, allow me to make some mention of them.

Governor Beckham chose wisely in selecting Cox and Wall.

After a noon lunch, I followed Mrs. O. and Mrs. A. T. Cox, who in company had preceded me some hours. That noon lunch was a mistake on my part, for I had hardly entered the Kentucky Building before I discovered Garrett and Will busy seeing that everyone was supplied with the fine dinner—old country hams, beaten biscuit, that are never made out side of Kentucky's Bluegrass region, salads, pickles, &c., &c., just such a spread as one encounters at the Germantown Fair, where everyone expects everybody else to eat with him; every good thing to eat and the most excellent coffee to drink. There were liquids other than coffee; numerous punch bowls large enough to take a bath in, and very numerous bottles, with Government stamps over the corks and appropriately labeled. A colored "gemman" with a spiral-shaped piece of hardware destroyed the stamps and extracted the corks with dexterity.

Tom, I was reminded of your experience recorded some time since in THE LEDGER, when just in from "the field" during the 60's, when you struck a buffet and gave your order for refreshments—the delay and difficulty you had in having the order filled, &c., &c. Had you run into the Kentucky Building all would have been serene.

Kentucky Day I swore fresh allegiance to my native state and blessed our Maysville representatives to the Fair.

At the reception in the evening, each one of the Governor's Colonels outshone even General Miles in the display of gold cord, shoulder straps, &c. Some of these gentlemen with eagles on their straps should practice in private carrying their swords. A novice is apt to get mixed up with such an ornament. A Colonel astride of his metal cased blade, a la boy on a horse, is not free of the ludicrous.

This being a time of peace and plenty—to drink—the soldiery did not attract as did the bald heads and bare busts. I have no reference to Judge Wall. Mrs. O. borrowed my glasses as we with some friends were looking from a convenient balcony. I endeavoring to find a bald spot in Will Cox's head. No success, but he was all shaven and shorn, and without glasses I had no difficulty in seeing that he and the Judge were equally gallant in that assembly of remarkably handsome b. b's. I understand each of these gentlemen have arranged to bring some of their home ladies with them, when they come to "do time" at the Fair.

The following forenoon I had the good fortune to be with my friends until they left on noon train for home. Down town among others on whom they made brief but very pleasant calls, were Charles Fitzgerald who welcomed them heartily, and another, Joe Maher, whom the younger generation know not, he having been a schoolmate of Esquire John Perrine, Perrine Lawre, et al of Tuckahoe. Later he lived in Washington where we all knew him and loved him. Joe is the most loyal Kentuckian and thorough American that lives. If a better man in every way lives, I have not found him.

Happy hours thus spent causes one to forget politics and all other ugly things; causes one to love their friends more and hate their enemies less.

"My Old Kentucky Home" as rendered at the Kentucky Building caused a moisture in my eyes that I am not accustomed to, nor ashamed of.

I have not any more My Old Kentucky Home, but, good God! how I would like to have, even the humblest. Your friend, G. H. O.

MRS. MARGARET DIENER.

Mrs. Margaret Diener died at her home near Plumville yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock after an illness of two months, aged 24 years.

Her maiden name was Margaret O'Donnell, Mrs. Eunice O'Donnell of Bridge street being an aunt. She was married in this city six years ago to Mr. Joseph Diener.

Besides her husband, she leaves a young babe not yet three years old.

The funeral will take place from St. Patrick's Church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock after services by Rev. Father P. M. Jones.

Interment in Washington Cemetery.

ROBERT P. TAYLOR.

Robert P. Taylor, a former resident of this city, died yesterday at his home at Norman, Oklahoma.

He was a son of the late Dr. Nesbitt Taylor, and was 83 years of age.

His remains will be interred at Washington, reaching here probably on Saturday.

MAGNIFICENT DINER

Cost of New Car Just Put in Service of the C. and O.

An idea of what it costs a railway company to maintain its rolling stock and replace unsuitable equipment may be gained from the cost of a magnificent new dining car which the Chesapeake and Ohio has just installed in Cincinnati-New York service.

The new diner, which is said to be the first ever turned out by the Pullman shops, $18,000, stripped.

The outfit of the silver service, table kitchen equipment, etc., cost an additional $20,300.

There was put under this new dining every modern appliance known to give it smooth running qualities.

The interior of the car is finished in mahogany and the decorations are in green and gold. It is ventilated and cooled by means of new electric fans.

The pantry and refrigerator departments equipped with the new Bohn system of refrigeration, which keeps food lockers at an even temperature of about 36°.

Colonel Harry Talcott, Superintendent Dining Cars, and J. D. Potts, Assistant General Passenger Agent, had many visitors to inspect the new diner before leaving Cincinnati for its initial trip.
